The TRILLIUM

Presented by the students of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Agricultural High School.

Silver Anniversary Edition

1928 1953

Foreword

Twenty-five years ago last fall Copiah-Lincoln A. H. S. expanded to include two years of higher learning and became Copiah-Lincoln Junior College and Agricultural High School. The following spring, Volume V of the Co-Lin Annual listed fewer than four hundred students enrolled and twenty-five staff members. The school plant with its five buildings was valued at $250,000. Today the school's property, which includes seventeen buildings, is valued to $2,000,000, and the normal enrollment is approximately six hundred.

Year by year, except when war interfered, the Annual, later christened The Trillium, has faithfully recorded the growth of which we are justly proud, the development of a varied program of activities and the maintenance of high scholastic standards. But it has attempted to reflect, too, that in which Co-Lin takes its major objective, the development of fine character in the individual and of wholesome group spirit in the student body as a whole.

It is the intent of this Silver Anniversary volume to point with tenderness and gratitude toward the Beginnings and the Beginners, and to present the story of Copiah-Lincoln's many triumphs as a challenge to all of us to make ours a still greater school.

The Trillium Staff

Dedication

To Mrs. Oswalt, Miss Callender, Miss Stevens, Mr. Ewing, Mrs. Ewing, and Miss Thompson

With genuine devotion and sincere gratitude we proudly dedicate this, our twenty-fifth anniversary Trillium, to you who helped to found our college and have since given freely of your time, your talents, and yourselves for the past twenty-five years. You have instructed us, encouraged us, and led us by your splendid examples. We feel that by dedicating this annual to you, some of our deep love and admiration for you could be expressed. As you celebrate this quarter of a century of success, may you look forward to greater goals and successes in the years to come.

J. M. EWING,
PRESIDENT

The Co-Lin Trillium Staff
1953

Dear Friends:

Congratulations to you and the Sophomore Class you represent in publishing the 1953 annual. This yearbook will keep alive for years to come many of the friends, classmates, incidents, and activities of Copiah-Lincoln--its value to all of us will increase with the years.

The 1953 sophomores have provided excellent leadership. May I challenge you to continue that leadership in your local community and in your state. Most of your education has been provided at the expense of the State of Mississippi. You have an obligation to your state that can be repaid only in good citizenship.

"Wisdom is the principal thing, therefore, get wisdom; but with all your getting, get understanding." This statement of old is truly applicable today; your education is in vain unless your heart is trained along with your mind.

My wish and prayer for you is that you shall be able to assume fully your obligation to your community, state, and nation; to your church; and to your fellowman. You live most fully for yourself when you live a life of service.

May the principles of the Great Teacher ever guide your pathway.

Sincerely yours,

J. M. Ewing

James Ewing, Jr.
Feature Editor, Co-Lin Trillium
Copiah-Lincoln Junior College
Wesson, Mississippi

Dear Mr. Ewing:

There I've done it! And I'm sure what I've done will make new and numerous enemies for me; but before you think too harshly of me, remind yourself that mine was a valorous task, fortified not at all with any room for discretion. I wish I could have pronounced all the young ladies winners, for certainly they are all lovely, but you limited me.

My thanks again, for honoring me with this great privilege.

Most sincerely,
Jeff Chandler

P. S.

And now we come to the close of our twenty-fifth anniversary year at Copiah-Lincoln. To some of you we say farewell, to some, alas! goodbye. But to all we extend good wishes, and thank you for your help with this book .... You have made it; we have only recorded your deeds. May the record bring you memories shining as silver.
